SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Barney Osborne, FHFMA

Vice president, Finance & Reimbursement SCHA

Barney Osborne has more than 25 years of experience in health care finance, including significant work in the small and rural hospital setting. Having taken on administrative responsibilities for many clinical ancillary departments, he has coordinated clinical and financial functions that are often polar opposites in the hospital environment. His broad range of knowledge in financial and administrative functions gives him a unique appreciation for the revenue cycle and how it is impacted by clinical diversity.

During his tenure at Bamberg County Hospital, the facility earned national ranking in the Cleverly and Associates Community Value Index® Top 100 Hospitals Report for four consecutive years. Three of the four years, Bamberg County Hospital was the only South Carolina hospital to be recognized. The hospital was also listed for three years in a row in the Data Advantage Low Cost® and Low Charge Reports®.

Barney is a graduate of the University of South Carolina. Barney is a Fellow of the Healthcare Financial Management Association (FHFMA) certified as a Certified Healthcare Financial Professional (CHFP) and also certified in Advanced Technical Study in Accounting and Finance. Today, he is putting his many years of hospital financial and administrative experience as a hospital chief financial officer to work for all South Carolina hospitals as vice president of finance and reimbursement for the South Carolina Hospital Association through education and evaluating of state and federal regulatory and procedural changes and evaluating the related risks at the hospital state and federal level, and advocating for the good of all South Carolina hospitals.

Barney is a long-time member of the South Carolina Chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association and is currently a member of the chapter's Board of Directors. He has also served on a number of other boards and taskforces in the state.

Cameron Mosier

Cameron has worked with KershawHealth 18 years. She has served as the Foundation Coordinator, Director of Marketing and is currently serving as the Regional Director of Physician Staffing & Development for KershawHealth in Camden and Carolina Pines Regional Medical Center in Hartsville, SC.

Cameron graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia with a degree in Economics. She has served as a Board Member for the Carolinas Association for Physician Services, Membership Chair and has been an active member of the Association of Staff Physician Recruiters (ASPR) for many years. Cameron also served on the Board of Directors for the Kershaw County Chamber of Commerce from 2003-2006 and graduated from the South Carolina Hospital Association's Management Academy in 2005, and is a former member of Kiwanis

Ella Sims Barbery

Biography:

A native of Greenville, South Carolina, Ella has been in the private practice of law since 2002, and has participated in trials and appellate work in State and Federal courts. She has also assisted clients with various matters before administrative agencies.

Ella graduated from the University of Tennessee, College of Law in 2002. After practicing in Knoxville, Tennessee representing large financial institutions, Ella decided to focus her practice on the difficult issues affecting medical providers. She then attended the University Of Houston Law Center, where she received an LL.M. degree in Health Law in December 2005.

Ella returned to Greenville and joined Roe Cassidy Coates & Price, P.A. in November 2006. She primarily focuses her practice in the areas of health care litigation, health law, medical malpractice defense, and general civil litigation. She is also active in both local and state bar associations, as well as various community volunteer projects.

Connie L. Overton

Diversion Group Supervisor

Connie Overton, a native of Houston, Texas, is the Supervisor of the Diversion Group in Columbia, South Carolina. In October 1999, Connie Overton began her Diversion career in the Houston Field Division. GS Overton graduated from the DEA Diversion Training in May 2000. As a Diversion Investigator, she conducted a full range of criminal and civil investigations against healthcare professionals as well as administrative and pre-registrant investigations. GS Overton also developed and maintained productive relationships with the pharmaceutical, chemical, and distributors industries. In April 2010, GS Overton reported to the Columbia, SC District Office as the Group Supervisor. During her career, GS Overton has provided Diversion training to medical and pharmacy professionals, law enforcement personnel and community activists.
